National Honor Society

By: Kailey Heusohn

Congratulations to the newly inducted members of the National Honor Society! These ten juniors have met the criteria of leadership, character, scholarship, and service that it takes to be apart of the NHS: Madison Akridge, Brady Beggs, Austin Brockman, Zane Chism, Micayla Koonce, Elizabeth Nelson, Michaela Rouggy, Courtney Stanek, Nicholas White, and Brooke Wilson. The senior members ran the ceremony and officially welcomed the juniors on Monday, March 13th at 7pm in the little gym.

The Scholar Bowl season has come to an end. On March 6th, Althoff hosted the Scholar Bowl regional, with a tough first round match-up versus Metro East. The team finished with a score of 300-80. Coach Avara said, “The team has come together more this year and I’m proud of that.” With the season ending, the team is having to say goodbye to their senior teammates:

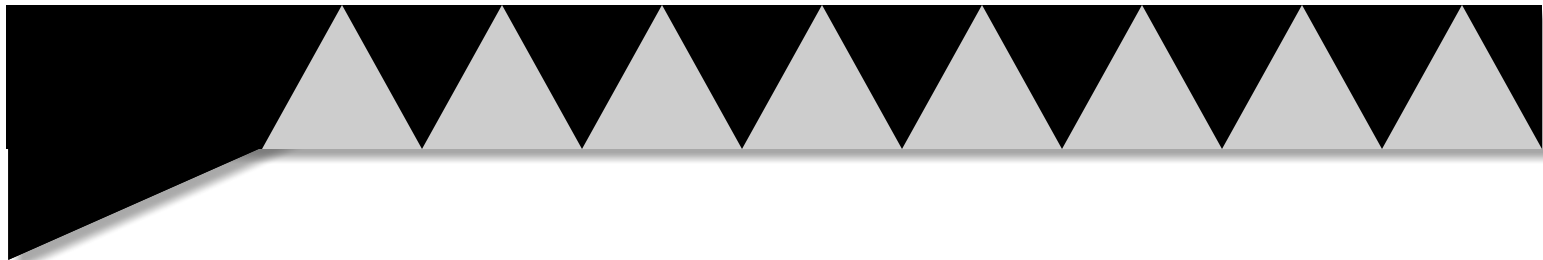

Kaitlyn Kyle, Jarrett Dixon, Chyanne Brown, and Taylor Law. With Taylor also being their top scorer for this season, next year’s team is going to have to some big shoes to fill.

Taking Titles

The Science Olympiad teams went out with a bang on March 11th during the Regional. Several of the team members medalled for both the junior high and high school. The high school took double digits in the regional competition with eleven medal winners. The medal winners included: Lisa Duty, Kaitlyn Kyle, Mason Reynolds, Taylor Law, Mercedes Ramires, Elizabeth Nelson, Meghan Bennett, Nick White, Austin Brockman, Waylen Keys, Brady Beggs, Sarah Ostertag, and Tyler Kyle. Not only did many of the members medal in the regional, both the junior high and senior high teams were awarded the Sportsmanship Award.

Tigers Off to a Running Start

The Dupo Lady Tigers played their first softball game of the season against Bunker Hill on March 16th. The Tigers won the game 12-2, led by home runs from Skylure Barlow, Taylor Esmon, and Megan Brown. Megan Brown also started the game, pitching, and was relieved by Reagan Carner. The pitching tandem looks very promising for the rest of the season. Shortstop Skylure Barlow stated, "I think it went really well, we came out hitting well and we had no errors on defense."

Dupo Tigers Baseball

The Tigers baseball team had their debut on March 16th against Bunker Hill High School. To start off the game pitching was Taylor Stanek who lasted until the fourth inning when Bunker Hill scored 2 runs. Brady Beggs came in to relieve him but Bunker Hill managed to score another run. The Tigers eventually tied the game 2-2. In the 8th inning, Bunker Hill managed to score another run, and the Tigers couldn't come back. "We have a lot of young kids and it was the first game of the year," Coach Schmersahl stated. The season is still early, wish them luck!
